The Plano East Activity Program is distributed at home football games, sporting events throughout the year, “Mr. Plano East” event and the drill team Spring Show. They are also used for a variety of team banquets. When an advertiser participates in the Activity Program, their ads are distributed to over a thousand East Side families throughout the school year.

Advertising in the Plano East Activity Program financially supports activities at Plano East, including Booster Clubs, scholarships for seniors, and a non-alcohol event after prom.
